Purdue Pharma L.P. et al.,
Debtors

Chapter 11

Case No. 19-23649 (RDO)

Intervenor's Motion to Appoint Counsel And Participate

Comes now pro se prisoner/intervenor, Ronald Luczak who has attempted to file a claim with the debtors in this action via their solicitation agent to no avail as responses to multiple letters have not occurred. Intervenor possesses an economic interest that will be harmed due to (1) inability to submit objections without access to a law library due to Covid-19, (2) inability to attend the April 21 hearing, (3) inability to file a claim due to the unresponsiveness of the solicitation agent. Intervenor claims $12,500,000.00 dollars for a litany of torts arising from prior prescriptions for Oxycontin, Roxicet, Percocet, usage. Wherefore an Order to appoint counsel, allow participation at the April 21, 2021 hearing and extension of the April 12, objections deadline is hereby requested (see 28 USC 1915(e)(1)).
